Here's an exhaustive and thorough legal synopsis concerning LLCs in Hickory, NC, with detailed insights into various aspects:

Formation and Legal Structure

Formation Process:

- Articles of Organization: Formation begins with filing Articles of Organization with the NC Secretary of State. This document must include:
  - Name: Must include "LLC" or similar, be distinguishable from existing names, and adhere to naming restrictions (e.g., not using "bank" without authorization).
  - Registered Agent: Must have a physical address in NC for service of process.
  - Principal Office Address: Can be anywhere but must be specified.
  - Purpose: Can be general or specific.
  - Duration: LLC can be formed for a specific term or perpetually.
- Filing Fees: $125 for initial filing.

Operating Agreement:

- Content: Though not legally required, the operating agreement should cover:
  - Management structure: Member-managed vs. manager-managed.
  - Capital contributions and distributions.
  - Voting rights and decision-making processes.
  - Provisions for membership changes, dissolution, or liquidation.

- Importance: Crucial for internal governance, dispute resolution, and maintaining the legal separation between personal and business activities.

#### Types of LLCs:

- Single-Member LLCs: Operate as pass-through entities for tax purposes, treated as sole proprietorships for federal tax but still provide liability protection.
- Multi-Member LLCs: Default partnership taxation, but members can elect S Corp status for tax advantages.
- Professional LLCs (PLLCs): For professionals like lawyers or doctors, where all members must be licensed in the same profession.

### Taxation and Financial Implications

#### Tax Structure:

- Default: Pass-through taxation where profits/losses are reported on personal tax returns.
- Elections:
  - S Corp Election: Allows for salary and dividend distribution, potentially saving on self-employment taxes.
  - C Corp Election: Less common for LLCs due to double taxation but might be strategic for certain business plans.

#### Tax Obligations:

- State Taxes: NC has a flat corporate tax rate of 2.5% if elected as a corporation; otherwise, members pay individual income tax at 4.75%.
- Annual Reports: Due by April 15 each year with a $200 filing fee. Ensures the LLC remains in good standing.

#### Deductions and Credits:

- Real Estate: Special considerations for depreciation, mortgage interest, and maintenance expenses. Potential for 1031 exchanges if properties are held within LLCs for investment purposes.

### Real Estate Transactions and LLCs in Hickory

#### Advantages in Real Estate:

- Liability Protection: Safeguards personal assets from lawsuits related to property ownership or management.
- Privacy: Property deeds reflect the LLC name, not individual owners.
- Estate Planning: Facilitates transfer of property interests without probate.

#### Notable Transactions:

- JTB of Hickory LLC:
  - Bought: 296 31st St SW from DAB of Hickory LLC in 2018.
  - Sold: Same property in 2023 for $430,000.
- DAB of Hickory LLC: Seller to JTB, no further public details on ongoing operations.

#### **Challenges:**

- **Lender Requirements:** Some lenders prefer property in single-asset LLCs for clear title and foreclosure processes.
- **Insurance:** Each property might need its own policy, increasing costs.
- **Cost of Formation and Maintenance:** Higher than direct ownership, including annual fees and potential for legal/tax consultancy costs.

### **Legal and Compliance Considerations**

#### **Annual Compliance:**

- **Reporting:** Annual reports to maintain good standing status.
- **Licenses and Permits:** Depending on business activities, might require special licenses (e.g., real estate brokerage, rental management).

#### **Professional Conduct:**

- **Attorneys Involved:** If members are attorneys, particularly in "Attorneys Only" transactions, they must navigate:
  - **Conflict of Interest:** Disclosure and management to prevent conflicts.
  - **Ethical Obligations:** Ensuring impartiality when acting in dual capacities.
  - **Professional Liability:** Increased exposure if title work is mishandled.

#### **Litigation and Dispute Resolution:**

- **Court Involvement:** Check for any current or past litigation to understand the LLC's legal health.
- **Arbitration/Mediation Clauses:** Often included in operating agreements or contracts to manage disputes outside court.

#### **Piercing the Corporate Veil:**

- **Risk Factors:**
  - **Commingling of Funds:** Mixing personal and business finances.
  - **Under-capitalization:** Operating with insufficient capital to cover foreseeable liabilities.
  - **Failure to Follow Formalities:** Not maintaining separate records or adhering to the operating agreement.

### **Research and Verification Methodology**

- **Public Records Access:**
  - **NC Secretary of State:** For LLC formation documents, amendments, and annual report compliance.
  - **Catawba County Records:** Deeds, mortgages, and property tax records.
- **Legal Databases:** PACER, LexisNexis, or Westlaw for legal history.
- **Professional Registries:** For validation of professionals involved like attorneys or realtors.
- **Tax Authority:** NC Department of Revenue for tax compliance and liens.

### **Conclusion**

This exhaustive synopsis offers a comprehensive view on LLCs in Hickory, NC, particularly regarding their use in real estate, tax implications, and legal compliance. Each aspect requires meticulous attention to detail to ensure the LLC operates within the legal framework, offering maximum protection to its members while capitalizing on tax benefits and operational flexibility. Further research would involve direct interaction with state and local government databases for the most current and detailed information.

From the screenshot, it appears that the grantor on June 6, 2018, is JTB of Hickory LLC. The grantor is typically the entity or individual who transferred the property or its rights to another party. In this case, it would mean that JTB of Hickory LLC conveyed the property to the subsequent owner or grantee.

JTB of Hickory LLC is a limited liability company based in Hickory, North Carolina. The company owns property at 3211 7th Street Drive NE, Hickory, NC 28601-9272.

On June 7, 2018, JTB of Hickory LLC purchased the property at 296 31st St SW, Hickory, NC 28602, from DAB of Hickory LLC.

As of September 29, 2023, JTB of Hickory LLC sold the property at 296 31st St SW, Hickory, NC, for $430,000.

Regarding any connection between JTB of Hickory LLC and attorney Luther Rollins, the available public records do not indicate any direct association between them.

If Luther J. Rollins Jr. is an attorney and the transaction lists “Attorneys Only” for the title, the implications could be:

1. Self-Representation in the Transaction:

As an attorney, Luther Rollins may have directly managed or facilitated the title and closing process for the property transaction. This could suggest he avoided using a third-party title company, leveraging his legal expertise to save costs or maintain control over the process.

2. Potential Conflict of Interest:

If Luther Rollins was both a party to the transaction (as a grantor or grantee) and handled the title or closing as an attorney, this raises questions about impartiality. While not inherently improper, it would require full disclosure and adherence to ethical standards to ensure fairness and transparency.

3. Specialized Legal Circumstances:

The involvement of an attorney directly in the title work could indicate unique legal complexities, such as disputes, encumbrances, or nuanced agreements, that required an attorney's expertise.

4. Professional Liability and Oversight:

If Rollins managed the title as an attorney, he would assume a higher level of professional liability, as errors or omissions could lead to legal consequences. This ensures he was likely thorough in his review and documentation.

5. Strategic Decision:

Handling the title and closing as an attorney could signify a strategic decision to limit external parties' involvement, especially in cases involving sensitive or confidential matters related to the property or parties involved.

This scenario suggests that Rollins used his professional skills to directly oversee the transaction, potentially blending his roles as both an attorney and a participant in the property dealings. If there are disputes or challenges with the transaction, his dual role could be scrutinized under ethical or legal standards.
