Approve the Screening Request

Thank you for your interest in 2649 Tifton St S, Gulfport, FL 33711! As the next step in the application process, the landlord has requested a screening report to review your credit and background history.

For your own security, you're required to verify your identity before the landlord can view your screening report. It only takes a few minutes to answer the questions and approve the request. If you do not want to send the landlord your screening report, login to your account and deny the request.

The credit check is a “soft” inquiry so you don’t have to worry about it affecting your credit score!
